Paso Robles Inn Welcomes Three New Team Members

Event Coordinator retires after 15 years of dedicated service

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CA—June 1, 2015 – After more than 15 years working in almost every role possible at the Paso Robles Inn, Carla Ruano, retired from the Paso Robles Inn this month. During Carla’s time at the Paso Robles Inn, she was responsible for coordinating many successful weddings, banquets, and other special events. Brides loved working with Carla and appreciated her kindness and flexibility. “Carla has the unique ability to instantly bond with others and make them feel comfortable. Her presence at the Inn helped provide personalized service to each and every group,” said Margaret Johnson, Chief Operating Officer at Martin Resorts.

As the Paso Robles Inn says goodbye to one team member, they say hello to three new members. The Paso Robles Inn welcomes Taffy Gonzalez, the new Events Manager. Taffy has 13 years of event management experience and most recently owned her own wedding planning company. Her experience in designing, planning, coordinating and promoting special events will bring a new perspective to the Events department.

Another addition to the team is Chelsea DeBoer, the new Guest Services Manager. The Guest Services Manager is a new position at the Paso Robles Inn and focuses on creating a memorable guest experience. Chelsea’s outstanding customer service skills makes her a great addition to the team.

Ryan Swarthout also joined the Inn as the new Kitchen Manager and Chef at the Steakhouse. Coming from Second Press in Paso Robles as the Executive Chef and General Manager, Ryan is well versed in managing all front of the house and back of the house operations. With 17 years of experience as a chef and in the restaurant industry, Ryan will focus on making the Paso Robles Inn Steakhouse the best Certified Angus Beef Steakhouse in the county.
